This submission is in response to the Commission's letter dated March 8, 2013 regarding Obama for America's 30 Day Post-General Report (10/18/2012 - 11/26/2012):

Item 1: Excessive contributions from individuals have been reattributed or refunded, reflected on subsequent reports.

Item 2: An amended report is being filed to reflect the correct election period designation for contributions made after the primary election.

Item 3: Contributions from Jane Novak, Philip Zink, and Elizabeth Roswell were properly reported on the Committee's 48-hour report. However, after the relevant 48-hour reports were filed, these contributions were reattributed to David Novak, Anne Zink, and Arthur Roswell, respectively, through the Committee's standard review of its contributions and appropriate attribution procedures. Similarly, the contribution from Lloyd Tevis on 10/25/12 is a reattribution from a contribution from Nona Lake Trevis on 10/15/12. The contribution from Nona Lake Tevis on 10/31/12 is a reversal of the reattribution to Lloyd Tevis.

Contributions from Jack Cannon, Guy Smith, and Marjorie Smith were inadvertently omitted from the original filings of the Committee's 48-hour report for contributions received on 10/26/12. Upon review of the Committee's records, the contributions were immediately reported on the amended 48-hour report for contributions received on 10/26/12, filed on 11/6/12.

Finally, during the Committee's review of its records, it was determined that Barbara Edelin was inadvertently omitted from the 48-hour reports, although her contribution was properly reported on the Committee's 30 Day Post-General Report.

Item 4: Contributions reported on 48-Hour reports but not on the post-general report were received during the 48-hour reporting period, but were not accepted by Obama for America and were returned to the donor without being deposited.

Item 5: Differing amounts on the 48-hour reports and post general report reflect adjustments to the amounts allocated to Obama for America from the Obama Victory Fund 2012, appropriately following the joint fundraising committee's allocation formula. The differing amounts were according attributed and reflected on the reports of the other participating committees of Obama Victory Fund 2012.

In addition to the joint fundraising reallocation, a portion of some contributions were reattributions among spouses, now properly reflected on our amended report.

Item 6: Contributions reported on 48-Hour reports but not on the post-general report were received during the 48-hour reporting period, but were not accepted by Obama for America and were returned to the donor without being deposited.

Item 7: Instances where it appears that donors have received refunds greater than the amount of their contributions are the result of inadvertent duplicate refunds. These records have been corrected or are in the process of being corrected, and will be reflected on subsequent reports. Otherwise, an amended report is being filed to correct the refund election cycle.

Item 8: An amended report has been filed to correctly report the offset from Michael McSwain as from Morgann McSwain.

Item 9: An amended report is being filed to adjust items on Schedule D.

Item 10: An amended PreGeneral Report is being filed to correct ending debt as of 10/17/2012.

Item 11: An amended report is being filed to include all addresses on Schedule B, Line 23.
